

Direct Care Workers Rally in Glens Falls For Increased Pay

A coalition of agencies and advocacy groups is conducting a statewide campaign to urge Governor Andrew Cuomo and the state Legislature to allocate an additional $45 million in Medicaid funding in the new state budget, with the funding earmarked to increase wages at agencies that support and serve people with developmental disabilities. More than 100 turned out to make their voices heard at a rally in the Glens Falls Civic Center on December 15.

Nick McCarthy speaks to the crowd at Glens Falls Rally