

Coalition Of Provider Associations

First Annual
Human Resources Professionals Conference
For the Disability Provider Community

AMY HEWITT, PH.D.
University of Minnesota

Director of Research and Training Center on Community Living
1400 University Avenue NE
Minneapolis, MN 55413
612-625-1098
Hewit005@umn.edu

Amy Hewitt, Ph.D. has an extensive background and work history in the field of intellectual and developmental disabilities and has worked in various positions over the past 30+ years to improve community inclusion and quality of life for children and adults with disabilities and their families. At the University of Minnesota she is the Director of the MNLEND program, MNADDM and the Research and Training Center on Community Living. She directs several federal and state research, evaluation and demonstration projects in the area of community services for children and adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities, including autism. She currently has research projects that focus on community living, autism, direct support workforce development, person centered planning/thinking and positive behavior support. She has authored and co-authored numerous journal articles, curriculum, technical reports, and she co-authored a book entitled, Staff Recruitment, Retention and Training. Dr. Hewitt is on the editorial board of Inclusion and an associate editor of Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities both journals of the AAIDD. She is a Past President of the American Association on Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities (AAIDD) and is on the Board of Directors for the Association of University Centers on Disabilities and Arc Minnesota. Dr. Hewitt earned a BS in political science and psychology at Indiana University; a Masters degree in social work at Indiana University; and a PhD in social work at the University of Minnesota.