

CP of NYS Annual Award Recipient

Robert Schonhorn Direct Support Professional of the Year Award

Eduardo Angeles Queens Centers for Progress

Eduardo Angeles is regarded as a consummate professional by his colleagues and supervisors at Queens Centers for Progress. He treats everyone with the greatest respect and works tirelessly with program participants to help them gain the skills they need to succeed in the work environment.

People participating in his program respect and trust Mr. Angeles and look to him for guidance in how to interact with others in a professional manner and to learn how to be successful in the workplace. He is a valued team player who works to ensure that every individual in his program receives an opportunity to reach their full potential professionally and personally.

Mr. Angeles is compassionate and equally concerned about the well-being of both his colleagues at QCP and the individuals they support. He is well-known around the agency as someone who is always willing to help his peers whenever needed. His dedication and effort each day is an inspiration to others at QCP.
