Issue No. 1

Anybody seen this individual's Life Plan?

Issue No. 2

I hope I get those Level of Cares...

Issue No. 3

What do you mean you clicked on the link?

Issue No. 4

But it's December, and with the holidays, I won't finish my November monthly summary until early January. OK?

Issue No. 5

Do I need to check all of these boxes? It seems kind of silly.

Issue No. 6

If I had an issue or concern, I would mention it. If I don't have one, I just don't say anything about it.

Issue No. 7

We have fancy new options to sign in and out of work. Community Hab signing in before the staff member gets to the person.

Issue No. 8

Time in and out – need I say more?
Math is hard. Keeping track of clinic appointments, late vans, leaving early . . .

Issue No. 9

Lunch – it takes me exactly 30 minutes to eat. Every day. I mean every day.

Issue No. 10

Miraculous documentation by a person out for the day.

Issue No. 11

Transportation billing separately
when it is included in the rate.

Issue No. 12

Billing for days where person shows absent.

Issue No. 13

The picture was cute – it belonged on Facebook.

Issue No. 14

Staff working in two different agencies working for both at the same time.

Issue No. 15

Staff turnover – you promoted a clueless person.

Issue No. 16

Dating of signatures – please stop this madness.

Issue No. 17

Sure, I talked about a person on Facebook but no one knows who I was talking about. . .

Issue No. 18

Unfinalized drafts.

Issue No. 19

Community Hab overlapping with Day Hab.

Issue No. 20

Medical necessity in the age of managed care.
